

SLUMBER

(Jonas Fjelsted)

someday when we wake from this slumber it's gonna open our eyes to the sky we've been sleeping under seeing it for what it is

living in a dream
doesn't do us any good
wake up to the real world
tell me, what's it gonna take look around you it's high noon
if we want a change

empty values in our lifetime leave us hungry for more standing on the shoulders of who we miss we oughta do our best
