

TOO BAD A LOSER

(Jonas Fjelsted)

you can strip me of what i got take all that I own make me swallow what pride I have left strip me to the bone

I may be out way too deep in no man's land you haven't seen the last of me the last of this man

as long as I breathe I aint calling quits I've heard it all before anyway even if I'd known the hardships ahead I'd do it it all again if I could I'm too bad a loser to ever let you win

I was forced to take a stand when it rained a flood holding on to my beliefs that runs deep in my blood

as long as I breathe I aint calling quits
I've heard it all before anyway
even if I'd known the hardships ahead
I'd do it it all again if I could
I'm too bad a loser to ever let you win
