

WHEN OUR LOVE COMES ALIVE

(Jonas Fjelsted/ Eline Engholm)

no such desire can wait, honey yet we stand by dry days gone by, my sweet honey we're still waiting

the thing that makes it all worthwhile
the thing that makes it all worthwhile is when our love comes alive our bodies in hypersleep, baby till date unknown my heart's on fire, my sweet baby unsynchronized with yours

the thing that makes it all worthwhile
the thing that makes it all worthwhile it's worth the wait every time
for when our love comes alive
